French Endanger Plan. The results of the near east conference in Paris were declared by British government officials today to be seriously endangered by what the British officials term French encouragement to the Turks to refuse the agement to the Turks to refuse the agement to the Turks to refuse the recommendations of the foreign ministers for a settlement of the difficulties between Turkey and Greece.

British officials declare the Turks are being led to believe that the Paris recommendations were merely a basis for mediation, and that additional concessions might be obtained, whereas the British view is that the last word concerning peace in the whereas the British view is that the last word concerning peace in the near east has been spoken, and that the belligerents must accept the Paris terms if Franco-British relations are not to be further strained.

British leaders who have just returned from Paris comment freely regarding the French attitude throughout the conference, their disregard of the fate of the Christian minorities and their open hostility to the

Each of the sisters has individual heart, lungs and stomach. Josepfa, who was stricken first, is most desperately ill. The disease was communicated to Rosa. Until last night the temperature and pulse of the twins had been virtually identical. But last night Josepfa's temperature mounted to 99 and her pulse to 160, while Rosa's temperature and pulse remained about normal at 98 and 85, respectively. An attorney has been at the twins' bedside, ready to write their wills should they become conscious. Rosa's tweive-year-old son Frants and the mother's brother Frank remain constantly at the bedside.
